6. The Defendant-Officers are sued in their individual capacities.

7. Defendant CITY OF CHICAGO is a municipal corporation, duly incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois, and is the employer and principal of the Defendant-Officers.

Facts

8. On or about May 6, 2008, at approximately 11:00 a.m., Plaintiff KIM CURRY was putting clothes in the washing machine in the basement of her house at 8332 South Essex in Chicago.

9. Plaintiff's son's friend, Jajuan Wright, was upstairs.

10. At that time, Defendant-Officers J.L. MOORE and HARRY STRONG came to Plaintiff's front door. No one answered the door.

11. After putting the clothes in the washing machine and feeding her dog, a German Shepard named Timberland, Plaintiff went upstairs and opened the back door to let her dog outside into her back yard.

12. Plaintiff heard a voice say, "Hell no!"

13. Plaintiff then saw MOORE and STRONG running through her yard. STRONG jumped over the chain-link fence; MOORE ran around to the walkway on the side of Plaintiff's house.

14. Plaintiff's dog ran after MOORE.

15. Because MOORE and STRONG were dressed in plain clothes and were not wearing badges, Plaintiff did not know that the two men were police officers.

16. Plaintiff heard at least six gunshots.

17. Defendant-Officer MOORE approached Plaintiff. Plaintiff noticed that he had blood on his arm.

18. Plaintiff asked if he had shot her dog.

19. MOORE didn't reply.

20. Plaintiff became hysterical, because she thought that the Defendant-Officers had shot her dog.

21. Plaintiff went to the front door of her home. She yelled out the window at the Defendant-Officers.

22. Plaintiff went outside and had a verbal confrontation with Defendant-Officer STRONG.

23. Plaintiff's stepfather and sister brought Plaintiff back in the house.

24. Plaintiff's stepfather told the Defendant-Officers to call a sergeant to discuss the incident with Plaintiff's dog.

25. Thereafter, Defendant-Sargent ELVIN BOONE arrived at Plaintiff's house.
26. BOONE came inside and asked Plaintiff if she had hit one of the Defendant-Officers.
27. Plaintiff told BOONE that she did not hit any one and that the Defendant-Officers had just shot her dog.
28. BOONE told Plaintiff that if she hit an officer she would be taken to jail.
29. Plaintiff walked towards the back of her house.
30. BOONE and STRONG followed Plaintiff and grabbed her arms.
31. BOONE twisted Plaintiff's arm behind her back.
32. Plaintiff told BOONE and STRONG that they were hurting her.
33. BOONE and STRONG handcuffed Plaintiff.
34. Plaintiff was seized and was not free to leave.
35. Defendant-Officers walked Plaintiff through her home.
36. Defendant-Officers took Plaintiff outside.
37. Two female officers arrived and transported Plaintiff to the police station on 103rd Street.
38. From the station, Plaintiff was taken in a squadrol to another station at 111th Street, where she remained for approximately two hours.
39. Plaintiff later learned that Defendant-Officers had come to her house looking for Plaintiff's cousin Breon Meeks, for whom they had an arrest warrant.
40. Meeks did not live at Plaintiff's address.
41. Plaintiff was charged with battery. The case was docketed in the Cook County Circuit Court as: People v. Kim Curry, 08-218243.
42. The charges were false.
43. While at 103rd Street station, BOONE and MOORE apologized to Plaintiff for shooting her dog.
44. BOONE told Plaintiff that if he had been there at the time, her dog would not have been shot. He also told Plaintiff that MOORE claimed that the dog had grabbed him by the knee and he was forced to defend himself.
45. Plaintiff did not observe any injury to MOORE's leg or damage to his jeans.

46. Plaintiff told the officers that her dog was not trying to attack, but that he had just been frightened by the presence of strangers in his backyard, and that this was not reason enough to shoot and kill him.

47. BOONE offered to get Plaintiff another puppy. Plaintiff declined this offer.

48. On May 8, 2008, Plaintiff and Jajuan Wright each made a complaint with the Independent Police Review Authority. The complaint was assigned Log Number 1016313.

49. Plaintiff received treatment at South Shore Hospital for the injuries the Defendant-Officers caused when they twisted her arms and placed her in handcuffs.

50. Plaintiff was diagnosed with swelling and a contusion to her arm.

51. Plaintiff's battery case was dismissed on June 19, 2008, when Defendant-Officer STRONG did not appear in court.

52. Each individual Defendant-Officer acted willfully and wantonly, maliciously, and with a conscious disregard and deliberate indifference to Plaintiff's rights.
